Reasons for Allowance

1. Claims 1-10 are allowed over the cited prior art.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding independent claims 1 and 6, Nagasawa (US 6,782,281) disclose a cellular telephone comprising two displays on opposite sides column 3, line 39 – column 4, line 29), and Cohen (US 6,862,445) discloses a portable telephone with a display for displaying an advertising message (column 4, line 38 – column 5, line 33). However, Nagasawa and Cohen fail to teach the cellular telephone above which further comprising a controller computer programmed to receive the advertising information control the first display in response to instructions received through the keyboard, and to control the second display device to display the advertising information on a screen of the second display device during a phone call established through the receiver-transmitter in response to operation of the keyboard by a user.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
